A Paranormal Podcast Review

By Carl Crooks, TnT Paranormal Investigators LLC

When asked to review some of the paranormal podcast sites, I thought that I would not run across very many. What I found is that there are quite a few out there. Many cover different topics under the paranormal umbrella, and a few are only interested in the “ghost/spirit” type. At the bottom you will find some information on a blog site, which I know to be quite popular.

I believe that there is more out there than what I have listed here, so by all means, go out and do some hunting.

I also want to let people know that on the TnT Paranormal Investigators Facebook Group account, there are quite often postings advertising radio shows that you can phone into and listen to, and blog sites that are out there. If you are not a member of our Facebook account, please sign up. Happy Hunting!!!

www.parapods.com This web site will give you paranormal radio content ranging from ghost hunting, UFO's, psychic/mediums and skeptics.

www.podcastdirectory.com If you got there and search paranormal you can find several podcasts.

www.jimharold.com The Paranormal Guy since 2005. This site includes all things paranormal. You can find many of his podcasts on iTunes.

If you use iTunes try going there and search for paranormal. You will find several podcasts available on many topics. And I was happily surprised to find these podcasts for free

www.theunexplained.tv The Unexplained with Howard Hughes, (not the famous insane inventor Howard Hughes). This is a pretty cool web site with all different types of paranormal stuff. Several television series have had this same name but to the best of my knowledge, there is no connection.

www.trueparanormal.podomatic.com Primarily ghost related

www.thefarside.tv Podcasts and radio programming on all things paranormal.
